Missionary of the Week

Shaun & Sondi Carlaw

Serving in: Hungary with Action International

Shaun continues to have opportunities to share in English clubs in Újpest and in the Reform hostel in the 10th district.

We are very thankful that Kelen has been enjoying his exchange semester in Singapore. He will return to Hungary in early June.

Prayer Requests:

- For Niki who attends Bible study. She broke her femur bone after a fall while leaving Bible study. She needed surgery and is now having physio. Pray for God to be working in her life and that she would grow in faith.
- For János, another member of Bible study, has had about 7 surgeries on his eyes. In the last few weeks, he has had 2 more and is recuperating now. Pray for physical and spiritual sight for him.
- We have been happy to reconnect with Kati, a former English Club member from our time serving in district 11. She has come to some church services with us and is interested in joining ladies' Bible study.
- For Doug and Kristie in their transition back to the USA and our need for a new teacher/s
- Söndi has a superficial blood clot in her lower right leg. The clot has shrunk some, but we would appreciate prayer that it would totally dissolve.
