Questions to consider this week:

1. Do you consider yourself a glass half full or empty (positive or negative) kind of person? What value do you see in celebrating God's work in our lives?
2. Is remembering a passive or active process? If active, how is it active? What can we do to help us remember God's work?
3. Why do you think the scriptures continually command the deliberate speaking of God's work to others? Why do believers stay silent at times?
4. Do you think we rejoice well? Do you tend to be more emotional or stoic? Read Psalm 145. What does a good celebration of God look like?
