Questions to consider this week:

1. Is grace a momentary pardon when needed or a continual power of God in believers' lives? What verses point you to this conclusion?

2. As a believer, how have you viewed grace? What is the true believer's relationship with grace daily?

3. Read through Romans 5 and 6 and comment on the understanding of grace the writer is portraying.

4. Why do you think it's tempting to view grace as unending forgiveness that leads to minimizing the seriousness of sin (Rom. 6:1)? Why do believers end up with feelings of guilt, shame and anxiety instead of confidence, joy and peace? What is the correct perspective?
